

Open SpaceTypes

Open Space Type
Illustration

Example of Intended Physical Character

Description	A greenway is a linear open space that can meet a variety of purposes, from recreation to environmental restoration.	An open space available for unstructured and limited amounts of structured recreation.	An open space available for civic purposes, unstructured and limited amounts of structured recreation.	Plazas are open spaces available for civic purposes and commercial activities. Building frontages should define these spaces. Plazas are typically hardscaped.	An open space available for informal activities in close proximity to neighborhood residences.	An open space designed for the recreation of children and interspersed within residential areas. Playgrounds may be included within other open spaces.	An open space designed as a grouping of plots for nearby residents for small-scale cultivation. Community Gardens may be included within other open spaces.
Size	8 acre minimum	1 acre to 15 acres	½ acre to 5 acres	½ acre to 2 ½ acres	4,000 s.f. to ½ acre	There is no minimum or maximum size.	There is no minimum or maximum size.
Frontage (min)	Fronting lots encouraged to provide access and pleasant frontage.	2 streets	2 streets	2 streets	1 streets	1 streets	1 streets
Typcial Facilities	Passive and active recreation, accessory structure, drinking fountains, signs, benches, excercise equipment, benches, and paths	Passive and active recreation (unstructured or structured), accessory structure, drinking fountains, community facility < 5,000 gsf, and paths	Passive and active recreation (unstructured or structured), accessory structure, drinking fountains, community facility < 5,000 gsf, and paths	Passive recreation, accessory structure, drinking fountains, and paths	Passive recreation, accessory structure, drinking fountains, and paths	Accessory structures, drinking fountain, and paths	Accessory structures, drinking fountain, and paths